

Be part of it

Be Part of It - Transport Roles

We are two months into our selection process and are securing candidates now for Games Time, with roles starting on June 1st 2012!

These roles are suitable for talented, dedicated and enthusiastic individuals (including students and recent graduates) with a passion to deliver the ultimate Games Time customer experience.

Individuals applying for these roles should have a strong aptitude for customer interface, team work and communication. If selected, the first stage is a telephone interview where your skills will be assessed.

Due to the volume of applications that we anticipate we might receive, it may be necessary for us to close this vacancy sooner than the published date. Please apply as soon as possible to avoid missing out on these opportunities.

Key Competencies

- Strong attitude for customer service
- Passion for the Games
- Team work
- Communication

If you have the experience required, are passionate about London 2012 and would like to be part of our country's most momentous events,

Please apply at:

<https://locogrecruitment.london2012.com/jobs/main?cmd=reqPrivate&x=8TMoP7mwEzggZGQg>

These roles will commence on June 1st 2012 until September 2012, please be sure you are available to start work from these dates and that with no holiday/appointments booked.

official recruitment services provider of the Olympic and Paralympic Games